The librarians are here to help you with your evidence searches:

- Don't have time to do a search? Don't worry, we can do it for you! Complete the form opposite, or download from our website, and we will conduct the search for you and email you the results. **
- Do you need some help or training to complete a search? Starting a course or research project? We run 1:1 or small group training sessions tailored to your needs. These are available in the library or in your place of work.

Contact the library to arrange a training session or to discuss how we can support you.

 this service is only available to ECT staff. Training is available to all staff/students
