Library News

Welcome to our new doctors and med students who have joined the trust this August! Scan the QR code to access our web app for new medics, with an overview of library resources, including how to register with the library and create an Athens account.

NHS Knowledge and Library Hub

The NHS Knowledge & Library Hub has had a makeover! The Hub searches across multiple databases, as well as the library catalogue, guidelines, and more. Explore the new interface at: library.nhs.uk/eastcheshire

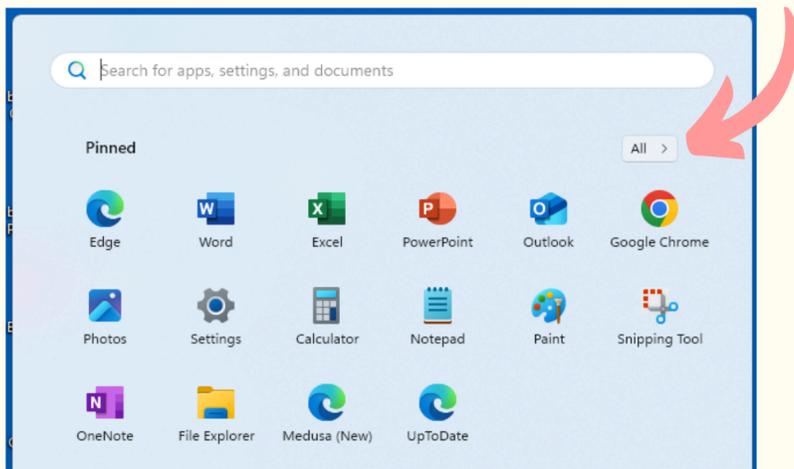

6 Book Challenge

The summer 6 book reading challenge is still ongoing! Reading for pleasure helps to reduce stress and boost your mood, so why not challenge yourself to read 6 books before the end of September? Email the library to join in – everyone who completes the challenge will be entered into a prize draw!

Accessing Medusa and UpToDate

Since the upgrade to Windows 11, there's been a slight change in how you access Medusa and UpToDate through the start menu. You now need to open the start menu, then click 'All' to open the A-Z list of all programmes and websites. You can right click on any item in the list to add it to your pinned items, which show up when you open the start menu.

BMJ Learning

Access over 900 evidence-based courses that are continuously updated based on the latest guidance. Courses are accredited and recognised by professional bodies – log in to gain CPD points that can contribute towards professional registration.
